

The “Mandranova” is a delicious independent villa, surrounded by olive trees.

This beautiful self-contained villa used to be the estate’s winery. It has been fully restored and modernized in a harmonious blend of old and new.

Stone, cement and plaster are the materials used for the restoration.

The house is surrounded by olive trees reflecting in the private pool; from the terrace you can enjoy an unparalleled view over the olive grove across to the sea.

The villa consists of two en-suite double bedrooms and a twin bedroom at the first floor. It benefits from an amazing private infinity pool, an outdoor sitting and eating area, with a built in charcoal barbecue. It also has a large open plan living room with a small kitchen with stove.
